RIDGELY TALKS ON VIOLATION OF LAW

Comptroller Says Government
Has Been Successful in Prosecution of Officials of Suspended
Banks—Discusses Walsh Matter.

Washington, Dec. 20.—Comptroller of the Currency William B. Ridgely today made a statement in relation to the trouble of the three Chicago banks controlled by John R. Walsh.

The newspapers, he said, have given all the facts in relation to the matter, and there was nothing. Mr. Ridgely added that he could say which would add materially to what has been published. Speaking generally in relation to the matter, he said:

"In this case, in all others with which I have had to deal, I must decline to make any statement or give out anything for publication in relation to the criminal violation of law."

"It is for the Department of Justice to say whether the evidence as to the justice criminal proceedings, what facts shall be given out and how the cases shall be conducted."

"In spite of the difficulty there is always in getting evidence and convicting men of such crimes, the Department of Justice has been successful in punishing bank officials in the cases with which I have had to deal, notably those of J. A. Burry Park, N. H. Doylestown, Pa.; Oberlin, Newark, and Galtman, O.; Elkhart, Ind., and Milwaukee, Wis."

THE WALSH BANKS.
"In all these cases I am sure the prosecution has been more successful than if the evidence had been hunted up with a brass band, and the cases had been previously tried in the newspapers."

"The trouble with the Walsh banks was due to two things which are always dangerous—the holding of large amounts of public deposits and the managing officers of the bank being interested in outside enterprises requiring the use of very large amounts of borrowed money, which they supplied from the funds of the bank in large and large amounts."

"No bank whose officers are using its money to any considerable amount, however from danger. They do not all fail, but many of them, and when a bank does fail, it is almost invariably from this cause."

"There is seldom a failure which is not due to excessive loans either directly to the officers or indirectly to the bank, which they are in some way interested in. There was no money stolen from the Walsh banks, or stored in their securities, as there was, for instance, in the Enterprise Bank of Allegheny, Pa."

WALSH BRANCHED OUT.
"John R. Walsh was for years considered a very successful and conservative banker, but he branched out more and more into other enterprises. He owned a large Chicago newspaper, three or four railroads, coal mines, quarries and had real estate and property of every description."

"He is a man of marvelous energy and ability. His companies were well organized and conducted, and he might have succeeded as he always had in the past, but he undertook too much for his capital."

"Mr. Ridgely praises the 'brave, broad-minded and public-spirited' action of the Chicago bankers in taking up and guaranteeing the liabilities of the Walsh banks. He says their action 'saved the city of Chicago from a financial disaster, and it is a very serious consequence if it stopped as it was.'"

NEW YORK REPUBLICANS TO CAUCUS ON SPEAKER

Supporters of Both Wadsworth and
Merritt to Gather in New York
City Friday—Another
Candidate Possible.

New York, Dec. 20.—An important move in the contest for the speakership of the New York State Assembly was made today, when after a conference which included some of those opposed to the candidacy of J. W. Wadsworth, Jr., a decision was reached to call a caucus of all doubtful members of the assembly, to be held in this city on Friday.

Though Mr. Wadsworth was not consulted, friends of E. A. Merritt Jr., also a candidate for the speakership, said tonight that the call would include the adherents of both camps, and that it was intended to get the members together for an expression of views on the action of Governor Higgins in supporting Mr. Wadsworth, and as to the other candidates.

Another interesting feature today was a statement that Assemblyman James T. Rogers, the majority leader of the assembly, is considering whether again to announce his candidacy for the speakership. Mr. Rogers withdrew from the candidacy for speaker when Governor Higgins came out in favor of Mr. Wadsworth.

Mr. Merritt made public a statement tonight in which he declared that he was a candidate for the speakership, and that he was under no obligation to make the choice of speaker, and that he was under no obligation to make the choice of speaker, and that he was under no obligation to make the choice of speaker.
